VOLCANO MISTI
(5825 meters)

DURATION: 02D / 01N
ROUTE: Aguada Blanca
DATES: From March to December
DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY: Moderate

1st DAY: AREQUIPA – BASE CAMP 4 800m.

We pick up the passengers at 8:00 a.m. and drive to the dam of Aguada Blanca. Our 4 x 4 takes us up to 4 000 meters, beginning the climb at 11:00 a.m. and continuing for about 3 hours to the Mont Blanc campsite at 4 800 m. During the ascent we will be able to see the dam of Aguada Blanca and the Volcano Ubinas, as well as the reservoir of Aguada Blanca. Approx. 4 hours trekking.

2nd DAY: BASE CAMP 4 800 m. – SUMMIT – AREQUIPA

We leave at 2:00 a.m. heading to the summit, reaching 5825 meters at the top of the volcano at about 8:00 a.m. From the summit we will be able to see the Snow-capped Mountains, Chachani, Pichupichu and Coropuna. If the clients are feeling strong, we return by the route that goes inside the crater. On this route we can see the impressive interior of the crater. After returning to the Base Camp, we will begin the descent to Arequipa, arriving at about 3 or 4 p.m. Approx 10 hrs trekking.
